DIABETES is published by the American Diabetes Association, Inc., to provide an official Journal for the Association and to furnish the medical profession with information concerning diabetes and related fields of medicine. Manuscripts received after April 1, 1977 and subsequently accepted will incur a charge of $25. per printed page, which may be waived under special conditions at the discretion of the Editor.

Contributions are invited from practicing physicians, clinical and laboratory investigators, and others who have data of importance to offer in these fields. Manuscripts, if suitable, will be accepted providing that the text has not been printed elsewhere.

Matter appearing in DIABETES is copyrighted by the American Diabetes Association, Inc. Permission to reproduce all or parts of papers appearing in it may be granted under appropriate conditions and if proper credit is given. Such requests should be addressed in writing to the Secretary of the Association, accompanied by a letter of permission from the senior author.

All signed articles and editorials are the responsibility of the author(s) and not that of the American Diabetes Association. The Editors will be pleased to consider for publication papers presented at the Annual Meeting of the Association. Manuscript Specifications: The length of manuscripts (not including special articles or letters) should be limited to 5,000 words, exclusive of illustrations, etc. Exceptions to this limitation will be made at the discretion of the Editors.

Communications for the "Brief Notes and Comments" department should not exceed 1,000 words except in unusual circumstances. Figures and tables in these brief communications should be limited to one of each, and references should not exceed twenty in number.

Manuscripts should be typewritten, with double spacing, and if possible, submitted in triplicate together with three copies of figures and photomicrographs. Authors' and coauthors' degrees should be cited.

References should be presented in the style of the following examples: For Periodicals—Banting, F. G., and Best, C. H.: The internal secretion of the pancreas. J. Lab. Clin. Med. 7:251-66, Feb. 1922.

For Books—Allen, Frederick M.: Studies Concerning Glycosuria and Diabetes. Cambridge, Harvard University Press, 1913, p. 461.

An abstract or summary of the content of the paper in not more than 250 words should usually appear at the beginning. This should be self-contained and understandable without reference to the text.

Photographs, drawings, and figures should be suitable for reproduction. Photographs should be unmounted, untrimmed glossy prints. The names of authors should appear on the back. The tops of photographs and figures should be indicated.

Galley proofs are sent to the principal author of each paper, with a price list and order blank for reprints.

All manuscripts and related correspondence should be addressed to David M. Kipnis, M.D., 660 South Euclid, Box 8121, St. Louis, Mo. 63110. Editorial correspondence should be addressed to the Editorial Office, DIABETES, American Diabetes Association, Inc., 600 Fifth Avenue, New York, New York 10020.
